BADIL Resource Center for Palestinian Residency and Refugees Rights is holding its second annual International Mobilization Course for the Inalienable Rights of the Palestinian People. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and ongoing global travel restrictions, the program will be held entirely online between 31 July 2021 and 13 August 2021. The online 7-days program is designed to raise awareness on issues, both current and historical, that impede on the Palestinian peoples’ access to and realization of their rights. Each session (1 day program) will be 3 – 4 hours. The time will be determinated at a later date.

BADIL is inviting international advocates, activists, mobilizers, and policy officers from across the spectrum to apply.

The program includes in-depth lectures and group discussions, complemented by virtual field visits to refugee camps and areas under threat of displacement. These discussions and virtual visits will allow participants to witness the mechanisms of Israeli policies of forced displacement, colonization and apartheid and how Palestinians endure such violations and how, in some cases, they develop ways to resist these measures.

Within the program, space will be provided for working discussions on tangible strategies to improve international solidarity for the Palestinian people. Participants will leave with greater abilities to defend, promote, and advance Palestinian rights within the international community, accompanied by a durable mobilization network of international organizations and individuals to collaborate and work with.

Schedule and Topics Overview

Day 1, Saturday, 31 July: Orientation and Introduction to the Palestinian Case and Palestinian Refugees

Day 2, Monday, 2 August: Colonization, Zionism and Annexation

Day 3, Wednesday, 4 August: Palestinians in Jerusalem and Palestine ‘48

Day 4, Friday, 6 August: Palestinian Resistance

Day 5, Monday, 9 August: International Advocacy – Mechanisms and Approaches

Day 6, Wednesday, 11 August: International Advocacy – Challenges

Day 7, Friday, 13 August: How to advance the International Solidarity Mobilization Strategy
Administrative Information

An application is required to assess your background and suitability for the course. To apply, please fill out the application form (link application form) outlining your interest in the course and its relevance to your current work, including a copy of your CV. Submissions and question can be made to Ahmad Lahham (media@badil.org) on or before Wednesday 30 June 2021.

Accepted participants will be contacted on or before Wednesday 07 July 2021.

To support the course’s costs, a fee of $150 is required. It must be remitted before the start of the course. Payment method will be provided to selected applicants.

BADIL is an independent, human rights non-profit organization committed to protecting and promoting the rights of Palestinian refugees and internally displaced persons. Our vision, mission, programs and relationships are defined by our Palestinian identity and the principles of international humanitarian and human rights law. We seek to advance the individual and collective rights of the Palestinian people on this basis.